

Day Seminar: 27 November 2014

Un-illusioned philanthropy and fundraising

John Mc Loughlin
University of Kent

Philanthropy: A pragmatic working definition

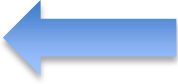

- Siobhan Daly (2011)
- Walter Bryce Gallie (1956)
- Aafke Komter (2005)
- Alan Page Fisk (1991)

Obligation – & redrawing spheres of action

- Allan Silver (1990)
- Adam Smith (1759)
- Alfred Marshall (1890)
- Breeze & Lloyd (2013)
- Ostrower (1995)
- Ancient Athens
- Ottoman charity (Singer, 2008)

Shifts in spheres of action

(after Silver, 1990)

Instrumental, impersonal, contractual		Personal, sentimental
Medieval & early modern amicitia		Modern Friendship
Rational, modern business		Pre-18 th century business
Pre-modern charity		Modern charity/philanthropy
Strategic, metrics driven philanthropy		Modern charity/philanthropy

Negotiation & risk

- Miri Rubin (2002): Medieval Cambridge
- Ilana Krausman Ben-Amos: Early modern England
- Amy Singer: Ottoman Empire
- Joanna Handlin Smith: Late Ming China (1506 – 1644)
- Thomas Adam: North America and Europe, 19th – 20th centuries
- Peter Shapely: Victorian Manchester & North West England